Wachovia donates $7,500 to Boca Helping Hands

BOCA RATON, FL, Tuesday, August 12, 2008 Wachovia Bank vice president Elizabeth Arevalo recently presented a check for $7,500 to Boca Helping Hands in support of the Food and Financial Assistance Programs. "Wachovia has come to our aid at Boca Helping Hands and with this help we can ensure that families at risk of low food security receive the services necessary to succeed in the current state of the economy," said Linda Gove, Executive Director of Boca Helping Hands.

The goal of Boca Helping Hands is to provide dedicated and compassionate service designed to help people in need gain independence by fostering dignity, self-respect and self-esteem.

Boca Helping Hands serves families in our community in crisis with a food and financial assistance program. Our focus on job mentoring and job placement is a vital part of helping people break the cycle of dependency. If you would like more information regarding the programs at Boca Helping Hands please visit our website at www.bocahelpinghands.org or call 561-417-0913.
